

Ash-Talk

News headlines of the week

We are proud of these things

Deadly Kids Awards
Jackson Plumb (y7) was awarded the Deadly Award last Friday 7th September at the Carriage Works. Only one student is allowed to be nominated from each school. Congratulations and as our new school captain was heard quoting "you should be able to get another couple by year 11" .

Roger Xie (y12) was announced the recipient of the NSW University Medal for Mathematics Assessment.

Congratulations to Alvir Divan, James Georgiou, Michael Nguyen & Matthew Liardo (Y12) Received Vet Construction Awards at St Georges Leagues

Congratulations to Charlie Kupi (centre in this picture of our talented Year 12 Drama Students) Charlie has been invited to perform on stage.

Indigenous Literacy Swap breakfast

Fantastic Result

The boys that volunteered their time in selling merchandise to support Cancer Council on Daffodil Day at Ashfield Station with Ms Gorton on Friday 24th August recorded a record for fundraising for the school. We raised $2,031 for the Cancer Council. We raised another $210 at the school.

Ash-Talk

The week that was.

---

School Captain:

We had very individual speeches from the 6 candidates who stood for the captain elections last Friday.

The opportunity was given for the whole school community to hear from the candidates and then vote.

Captain
Joshua Staines

Vice Captain
Juan Pablo Guevara Morales

